Day 1

OCTOBER 18TH 2026

PARIS

Dinner

Arrive in the City of Light and check into your elegant Parisian hotel, perfectly located to blend the charm of historic Paris with modern sophistication. In the evening, meet Amanda and your fellow travelers for a welcome champagne masterclass at the legendary Le Dokhan's, Paris' very first champagne bar, whose gilded interiors and refined ambiance set the tone for the week ahead. Together, we begin tasting, comparing, and exploring the incredible diversity of styles that define champagne.

Day 2

OCTOBER 19TH 2026

PERFUME & JOURNEY TO CHAMPAGNE

After breakfast, enjoy a private perfume workshop at Galimard, one of France's most storied perfume houses. Guided by a master perfumer, you will create your own bespoke fragrance to take home a sensory souvenir uniquely yours.

In the afternoon, we leave Paris for the rolling vineyards of Champagne. Upon arrival in Épernay, check into the Villa Eugène, a 19th-century mansion turned boutique luxury hotel, where each room blends old-world charm with refined modern comfort.

After settling in, enjoy a first tasting to awaken your palate, followed by dinner in a charming local restaurant that captures the authentic spirit of the region.

Maison Galimard
The Soul of Fragrance in Grasse

Founded in 1747 in Grasse, Maison Galimard is one of the oldest perfumeries in France. As a supplier to the court of Louis XV, it has embodied the elegance and tradition of French perfume craftsmanship for nearly three centuries. Still family-owned, the house now welcomes visitors to discover the secrets of perfume creation — from raw ingredients and distillation to blending and bottling. A unique opportunity to experience the art of perfumery in the world's fragrance capital.

Day 3 to 8
